DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the printing pixels form on a hard or flexible surface must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim 1. No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled “Replacement Sheet” in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention as following:

Art Unit: 2821

a) The phrase "such as" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

b) Failing to represent the claim in one sentence form only. Note the format of the claims in the patent(s) cited.

c) Failing to provide a complete claim structure including a preamble claim and a body claim so as to point out what is included or excluded by the claim language, for instance, the phrase "The firing mechanisms replacing ions cannons have already been established as well as the high carbon filament ink." For furthermore, this claim lacks providing a particular type of claim, an apparatus claim or a method claim, for establishing/forming a printed self-illuminating color pixel circuit. This claim is an omnibus type claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. For best understood, claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Yamazaki et al. (US Pat. 6,734,941), hereinafter Yamazaki.

Yamazaki discloses a liquid crystal display panel comprises plurality of pixels form/print on a flexible surface (col. 1, lines 15-37 and col. 4, lines 1-30).

Citation of pertinent prior art

Art Unit: 2821

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicants' disclosure.

Suzuki et al. (US Pub. 2004/0201551) discloses an apparatus for controlling matrix type display.
